2. This Team under the active and sustained guidance of Mrs. Sangita Patil, Senior Police Inspector, Vishrantwadi Police Station, carried out the investigation very promptly and meticulously. I must appreciate that their immediate serious efforts produced the desired results as with in a short span of time, after the report was made, one of the two thieves was caught. He admitted the theft and a part of stolen items was recovered. These items were finally released to me in the first week of October 2017 after completion of legal court proceeding.

3. I Shall like to admire the clinical and efficient manner in which the Police Team carried out the investigations to nab the thief. I highly appreciate and thank the Police Personnel for their promptness in carrying out their duty. Their promptness, Seriousness and dedication to the duty is commendable.

With best wishes and efficient hunting in the year to come.
